FIRE DRILL — Firemen from both the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Fire Departments pulled surprise fire drills at all schools in the two districts this past week. The results, firemen said, were "gratifying." In photo above, Lemon Grove fire captain Harry Alexander talks with pupils at St. John of the Cross School. Alexander said that the children evacuated the school in 1 minute and 5 seconds. The surprise drills tested teachers and administrators as well as pupils during Fire Prevention Week and gave the schools' new "junior fire marshals" a workout.

Coordinating Council Sets Recreation District Talks

Taxpayers Vote Disapproval of Recreation Plan

Say Need Information About Proposal's Costs, Facilities

The Lemon Grove Taxpayers Association went on record Monday as being opposed to the formation of a community recreation district "until such time as information as to costs and proposed facilities is made available to the public."

The association, with some two dozen members and a half dozen non-members present, also voted to send a letter to the County Board of Supervisors appraising the board of the association's stand

There was talk also at the Monday night meeting of the association of "papering" the community with circulars urging a stand against the proposed recreation district.

"We can fight this thing with petitions, petitions, petitions," said Milton Lear, president of the taxpayers association.

George Radici, executive vice president of the association, remarked that "we ought to concentrate more on education and less on recreation. We need more classrooms.

"They got too much recreation now."

It was Radici who proposed the resolution against the formation of a recreation district, saying that establishing such a district and electing a commission to run it without a mandate as to what facilities to set up and what to pay for them "is like signing a blank check and handing it to those guys."

Dr. Frank Gigliotti, consultant to the association, seconded Radici's motion. He said later that the resolution was worded deliberately to allow the group to back the formation of a recreation district "if we find that the group which is working for it really has the interest of the people at heart."

"If they show," he said, "that the district won't go hog wild and impose an unbearable tax burden on the people, I would be in favor of the recreation district and I think that a majority of those in the Taxpayers Association would be in favor of it too"

Broadway Improvement To Be 100 Feet, Have Islands, Board Says

Supervisors Defy Property Owners, Direct Engineer To Finish Plans

SAN DIEGO (CNS) —Improvement of Broadway, from College Avenue to Olive Street, will be with center islands and to a width of 100 feet, the County Board of Supervisors decided Tuesday.

Both the center islands and the 100-foot right of way have been bitterly protested by property owners. They have appeared before Supervisors several times in recent months to ask for only a painted line down the middle of the street and for a width of only 62-feet.

Led by Jackson Ammons, those in protest against the county's plan of improvement had vowed not to contribute a "square foot of land" for the widening of Broadway and to oppose condemnation proceedings. Bill Parker, president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce had presented an island-free plan for Broadway as representing the wishes of the majority of those affected.

Supervisors said Tuesday, in deciding on the plan supported by the road department, that they recognized the county would have to buy the land needed for adding to the right of way. This will amount to 25 feet on each side of Broadway, as the present right of way is only 50 feet.

The action to go ahead with the original plan came as something of a surprise Tuesday, as the Board had agreed a week earlier to put off a decision until members could go out to examine the area. They had been invited to have the chamber of commerce take them over the street

"We have had no solicitation from property owners anxious to give us rights of way, even if we do go for the plan they propose," said Supervisor David W. Bird.

"We said last week we'd go out in a body," said Supervisor Dean E. Howell, "and I had been hopeful we could do it after to-

SV Group Bids for 20-Acre New County Park

Supervisor Bird Says County Willing If Land Donated

Spring Valley residents made a bid this week to get a county park.

County Supervisor David Bird said the County is willing.

Apparently all that remained to be done was to convince the trustees of the Grossmont High School district that the district should donate 20 acres of its 70-acre site on Sweetwater Springs Boulevard.

Harold Hughes, associate superintendent of the Grossmont High School District, said that although nothing has been said recently in the matter, the school Board a couple of years ago discussed "joint use" of the 20 acres by local residents interested in recreational facilities.

(He said that the school district's policy is to encourage community participation in use of school facilities.

(Thus, the "convincing" of school trustees that the land be used for a park seemed fairly certain. Hughes pointed out that he was "simply guessing," however, and that any action in

General Discussion To Air Views on 'Education' Project

Council President Says Will Seek Way To Attract Interest

The Lemon Grove Coordinating Council will hold an open discussion Monday on two phases of the proposed community recreation district, according to the Rev E. Walter Smith, president.

The Rev Smith said that the council, which is sponsoring the recreation project, will discuss 1) how to interest capable, civic-minded people in trying for positions as commissioners of the proposed district, and 2) how best to conduct an educational program aimed at getting information to the public about the recreation district.

The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Monday in the auditorium of the Lemon Grove Junior High School Representatives of all interested organizations in Lemon Grove and western Spring Valley are particularly invited to attend this meeting, the Rev. Smith said.

Among those expected to attend are representatives of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce. The chamber held a board meeting Monday night and discussed the proposed recreation district No action was taken, but some action is forseen at the October 26 general meeting of the chamber

On October 27 at 2 p.m. a public hearing will be held by the County Board of Supervisors. At the hearing, Supervisors will accept verbal or written petitions from people who want their property exclued from the proposed district or addta to the district.

After the hearings, according to Attorney V. J. Dorman, the board will set a date for an election which would give voters a chance to approve or disapprove the district and to elect a five-man board of commissioners to run the district if it is approved.

Dorman said that any citizen who lives within the boundaries of the proposed district is eligible to run for a post as commissioner.

Public Hearings To Air Pleas For Rezoning

SAN DIEGO (CNS)— Three public hearings affecting property in the Lemon Grove area and one hearing on a Spring Valley application are slated for Friday's session of the County Planning commission.

A law suit against the county is being held up pending the outcome of one of the hearings.

The court action is the result of the demand of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert Chassy for C-1 zoning before the area was re-zoned.

In C zones stores and offices are permitted with half the area of a lot reserved for off-street parking, while C-1 zoning permits about the same use except that no parking provisions are included.

The Chassy's indicate in letters to the county that they wish to sell their property, but that interest in it on the part of prospective purchasers has decreased since the zoning was changed.

The County Board of Supervisors has asked the County Planning Commission to hold Friday's hearing to determine if the earlier zone change to C was justified. The Chassy suit to force the county to rezone their land to C-1 presumably will proceed if the commission and Supervisors again deny the the change.

The second hearing is on the request of John B. Dail for zoning for multiple dwellings for an acre and a half in the Buena Vista-Olive Ave. area The land is now zoned for duplexes.

A special use permit for an addition to the Community Four Square Church is the subject of the third Lemon Grove hearing. The church wishes to put up a youth building and Sunday school. It plans later, its application states, to add a sanctuary with a seating capacity of 200.

The Spring Valley hearing is on the application of Laurie F. Cout for a permit to build a rest home addition for a maximum of four patients at 8625 Lamar St. The building is to be 39 feet by 46 feet, the application shows.

Burglars Hit Bancroft School

Some person or persons, possibly juveniles, broke into the Bancroft Eelementary School between 11 p.m. Sunday and 11 a.m. Monday, according to a report from the El Cajon branch of the Sheriff's Dept. Deputy Emil Rodnick is investigating.

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

Broadway improvement, when it comes, will be built with center islands for left turn traffic.

For a while it appeared that Broadway property owners might co-operate with the county road department on a boulevard type improvement with a 150 foot right-of-way. Had this been the case, the county road department would have relinquished its insistence for center islands. The theory is that with wider rights-of-way, block-long parking control curbs would be installed to partially offset left turn hazards. (In narrower rights-of-way developments, parking control curbs with one opening in front of each business, are installed.)

Broadway property owners recently demanded of the supervisors a 62-foot, four-lane road without center islands. The county road department wants 100 feet for the right-of-way which will have 80 feet for the roadway with 18-foot center islands.

Broadway property owners say they nave made substantial financial investments on Broadway in Lemon Grove because tenants counld count o attracting some of the traffic that might oherwise be lost by center islands and commercial property values have a relation to sales volume. They also make the point that the wider right-of-way-is an encroachment on present parking areas and parking is a vital adjunct to successful business. Parking, says their spokeman, will not be given up without a battle.

The county road department takes the position that roads are designed for the motoring public, the latter paying for them by way of fuel tax. It i not to the best interests of the motorists to design roads exclusively for the benefit of business firms facing them, they say.

Roads are for getting motorists where they want to go quickly and safely, the road department says succinctly.

This newspaper would like nothing better than to see a boulevard-type thoroughfare through Lemon Grove with adequate parking, ornamental lighting, underground utilities and wide sidewalks. But such a development is not likely to be.

But we think that a 62 foot development of four traffic lanes without left turn islands would increase traffic hazards for your family and ours.

The county road department is not insensitive to the pressure of increasing traffic as more and more homes are being built in the area served by Broadway. They want to design a road that will adequately serve the public.

We suspect that supervisors feel a narrower, and a more hazardous road, built through Lemon Grove would haunt them politically every day of their life, should they approve the sub-standard roadway.

This is the background for the decision Tuesday when the Board of Supervisors instructed the County Road Department to pursue a plan for a 100 foot development with left-turn islands.

An acquaintance of mine, in the newspaper business more years than he'd care to admit, points to the embarrassment many newspaper writers face this week when they are called upon to observe National Newspaper Week.

With a record of many years of ridiculing such causes as National Asparagus Tips Week, and the National Toenail Clipping Week which incidentally falls on the same date as National Cotton-Picking Week, it is a small wonder that a pang of conscience reduces newspaper people to an uncomfortable twitch when they are called upon to sing the praises of another Week, although this one properly is to publicize our nation's free press.

Be that as it may, National Newspaper Week will be observed this year October 15 to 21, and no one should sound the clarion

County Tax Boost Second Highest, Taxpayers Report

San Diego County had the second highest percentage of increased in assessed valuation of property of all the 58 counties in the state this year, the California Taxpayers Association said this week in an analysis of tax rates.

And along with its increase in property valuations, the association said, San Diego County had the 12th highest increase in tax rates for general county purposes.

According to the taxpayers association, San Diego County's property valuations increased from a 1958-59 level of $1,214,275,720 by 11.7 per cent to a 1959-60 level of $1,356,650. Only Santa Clara County, with an increase of 12.9 per cent, had a higher percentage of increase.

San Diego County's tax rate increased 9 cents per $1.00 valuation to a new rate of $2.07 for the year. Rates of increase throughout the state varied from 1 cent in Lassen and Merced counties to 75 cents in Alpine County. Twenty-six of the counties lowered their tax rate this year, five counties showed no change in tax rate and 27 had higher rates.

Joan Anderson, Frances Beadle and Burke Breedlove listen as Gilbert Ray (center) explains to County Supervisor David Bird (right) what could be done to create county park on Sweetwater Springs Boulevard.

ANNEXATION OKAYED

San Diego (CNS)—Annexation to the Spring Valley Sanitary District of property owned by Mrs. George Zellmer was approved Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors. The action was taken on the recommendation of the Department of Public Works.

Broadway Plan Voted by Board

day's meeting. But it's getting close to 5 p.m."

"I think the trouble is typical of these things," said Chairman Robert Dent. "The business people have a theory. But often these theories don't work out."

Property owners opposed improving Broadway with center islands and a 100-foot right of way on the grounds it would take traffic through the business section of Lemon Grove to the College Grove Shopping Center that is being built just off Highway 94.

Ammons was the principal spokesman for the theory that no center islands and a narower street would keep people in Lemon Grove. He disagreed with the road department statements that such a thoroughfare is more dangerous, slows up traffic and actually hurts business.

"We're building a new road here," Dent declared. "I think we should follow accepted patterns. Everywhere else they're putting in wider roads with center islands, so left turns can easily be made. The theory they have out there won't work."

"Don't you think there's been a lot of hysteria about this?" asked Supervisor Frank Gibson.

Supervisor Bird then said there had been letters received from people asking the county to hold out in its stand for what it thought was the best plan.

Road Commissioner David K. Speer, who has opposed the road of 62-foot right of way and no islands, said his department had continued with the engineering work for the wider road and the islands He told Supervisors they had never directed the work be stopped, so that plans are now 70 perecent completed.

The final plans will be ready in two months, if the Board desires the department to continue, Speer said.

"I move," said Supervisor Bird, "that we direct the road department's engineers to finish plans for the 100-foot improvement of Broadway, with center islands as quickly as possible."

Bird's motion got three seconds and was carried unanimously.

Hopes to Get Land From Grossmont School District

the matter would be up to the school board.)

A group of Spring Valley people, representatives of various civic organizations, met with Bird at Breedlove Park, where two Little League playing fields have been constructed. The two playing fields lie at the southern edge of the 70-acre site on which the high school district plans to build a high school.

Bird said that the school district needs only 50 acres and "should be willing to give the county 20 acres for a park."

"After all," he said, "we gave them 50 acres in the Santee area not long ago."

The county supervisor said that he foresees the county building restroom facilities and various Spring Valley groups doing considerable landscaping work and donating trees and shrubs.

"We could have a nice park here," he said.

Those who looked over the site with Bird were enthusiastic. They included Gilbert Ray, Casa de Oro Chamber of Commerce president; Eleanor McJunkins, Spring Valley Lioness Club; Frances Beadle, Casa de Oro Woman's Club; Jean Andersen, Casa de Oro Woman's Club; Burke Breedlove, Valley de Oro Little League; R. W. Traber, Cajon de Oro Little League and Spring Valley Lions Club, and Dan Swing, Valley de Oro Little eLague and Spring Valley Lions Club.

Each said that his organization would be willing to undertake part of the project of shaping the area into a recreational park.

Brydegaard Hired To Design New Area High School

Grossmont Union High School District trustees Monday night approved a contract with Herluf Brydegaard for architectural services for the seventh high school in the district.

Brydegaard designed Mt. Miguel and El Cajon high schools.

The new school, as yet unnamed, will be located on Sweetwater Springs Boulevard in Casa de Oro area. It is planned to prevent double sessions at Mt. Miguel High School. Estimated enrollment at Mt. Miguel would rise, necessitating double sessions.

The sixth high school of the district is to be located at Fourth and Madison in El Cajon, also designed by Brydegaard, will be constructed and in operation by next September if no delays are encountered in construction. The district plans to advertise for bids on this $1,600,000 school within the next six weeks.

Clubs To Mark National Newspaper Week

Area Elks organizations will honor the press during National Newspaper Week (October 15-22).

San Diego Lodge 168 will be host to the working press Thursday of this week at a dinner at which Russell Brines, Copley News Service manager, will be speaker.

El Cajon Lodge 1812 will likewise have a dinner with William Giandoni, Latin-American editor of Copley News Service, as speaker. The El Cajon affair will be held Monday.

The Lemon Grove Rotary Club will mark National Newspaper Week with a dinner at De Angelis Restaurant on University Ave., Monday. A program will be provided jointly by Max Goodwin, publisher of this newspaper, and Larry Freeman, manager of the east county office of the Union and Tribune.

Fire Department Answers Four Calls In Spring Valley

Two fire calls and two ambulance runs highlighted the week's activities of the Spring Valley Fire Dept.

Under fire calls . . . On Oct. 9, fire trucks were called to Sweetwater Ave. and Troy St. to stand-by duty, as a Lemon Grove school bus had gasoline leaking onto the manifold. Mechanics from the L.G. Dist. garage soon had the bus in operation.

A fire in the kitchen of the Rancho Pantry Cafe, 9912 Campo Dd., on Oct. 13, extinguished itself just before fire equipment arrived. Fire Chief Don Clark said cause of the blaze is unknown. Damage to the cafe, Clark said, would run between $1,100 and $1,200.

Graham Cruz, 14, son of Mrs. Mary Cruz, 2010 Washington St., Lemon Grove, was brought to the S.V. fire station on Oct. 7 and transferred to Grossmont Hospital for emergency treatment. He had cut off half of his left index finger in woodshop at Mt. Miguel High School. Young Cruz remained in Grossmont Hospital three days

Mrs. Luetta Bowles of 3546 Bancroft Dr., was returned to a San Diego hospital in the S.V. ambulance on Oct. 12, after being home just a few weeks

Spokesman Urges Denial of Plea For Rock Plant

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—An appeal to the County Board of Supervisors to deny a special use permit, approved by the planning commission, for sand and gravel and rock crushing operations in the Sweetwater Valley, between La Presa and Sunnyside, was made Tuesday by John K. Pettit, as spokesman for a group of property owners and residents.

Supervisors are now required to hold a public hearing on the permit, and Mrs. Helen Kleckner, clerk to the board, said the hearing must be held within 40 days of filing the protest, but the law requires that advertising be published and property owners in the neighborhood be notified.

Although the County Planning Commission approved issuance of the permit, its action is only advisory. And Supervisors already indicated they are going to vote against the commission recommendation.

Supervisor David W. Bird, in whose district the operation is proposed, said at a board meeting on Sept. 29, "I'm going to vote against the Sweetwater permit when that comes up. It's an injustice to the people who live there. That's an area of fine homes."

Applicant for the Sweetwater Valley permit is Canyon Rock Co., a subsidiary of the V. R. Dennis Construction Co., one of the largest companies in the business in the county.

State Shouldn't Take Farmland for Roads Farm Bureau Told

"State - proposed freeways should not be allowed to gobble up good agricultural lands in the county," Roger Winchester, of El Cajon, told directors of San Diego County Farm Bureau at their regular monthly meeting Thursday in the Chamber of Commerce Building, San Diego.

Winchester said a proposed routing of Highway 94 through Spring Valley would destroy farms, disrupt city streets, and not make a direct connection with Highway 80. He recommended an alternative, more northerly route through the S.V.-Casa de Oro area.

A resolution by the farm leaders stressed that freeways should not displace rich farm lands, should be adequate, and should be built at lowest cost. The Bureau will be represented at State Highway Commission hearings in Sacramento on routes to be selected for Highway 78, scheduled for construction between Vista and Escondido, as well as for Highway 94.

Modern Poetry Class Starts In Lemon Grove

The first formal session of an adult discussion group in "Discovering Modern Poetry" will be held Tuesday evening in Lemon Grove under the auspices of the University of California Extension.

An informal session was held last Tuesday, with registration being held open until next week. The class during an 11-week "semester" will read some of the works of modern poets, hear their voices on high-fidelity records and discuss their methods and techniques.

The group, which is open to all adults, is being led by Mrs. Frances Bardacke, a teacher and recognized poet. The group meets at Mrs. Bardake's home, 3747 Citrus Street, Lemon Grove, from 7:30 to 9:30 pm.

Early Valley Settler Dies Here at 85

Mrs. Ada Perry, 85, of 7840 Mt. Vernon St., in Lemon Grove, died Saturday in a rest home. She had lived in Lemon Grove since 1951 and in the county 63 years and was one of the early settlers of Imperial Valley.

She was a member of the Entre Nous Club of San Diego, Heintzelman Women's Relief Corps, Lemon Grove Woman's Club and First Baptist Church of San Diego and was past president of San Diego High School PTA. She attended the Lemon Grove Congregational Church.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Martha Collett of 7846 Mt. Vernon St. Lemon Grove, and Mrs. Dorothy F. Boyle of 9397 Crest Drive, Spring Valley, and a son, Robert B. Perry of Syracuse.

Services were conducted by the Rev. E. Walter Smith of the Lemon Grove Congregational Church. Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery Wednesday.

PHONY PRICES

Phony comparative prices are one of the favorite lures of unethical dealers, the San Diego Better Business Bureau warns. A "comparative" price should be the usual price at which the article is sold in the area. When in doubt, contact the bureau.

Sanitation District Facility Expansion Seen By Board

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—An expansion of the facilities of the Spring Valley Sanitation District will soon be needed, the County Board of Supervisors has been informed.

The disclosure was made by Jean L. Vincenz, director of the Public Works Department, in answer to a question from Board Chairman Robert Dent.

How long are we going to be able to continue to connect new areas to this system," Dent asked after the Board voted approval of several annexations.

We're going to have to start on additions fairly soon," Vincenz said. But a provision for $75,000 was made in the 1959-60 budget for additions."

Isn't the answer to this connection to the metropolitan area system?" asked Supervisor David W. Bird.

"That's eight to ten years away" answered Vincenz, "and we are going to have to build additions to present facilities in the meantime."

The Spring Valley area has been one of the fastest growing in the county, and the disposal plant of the sanitation district has been in operation for only a little more than a year.

Acreage at the plant site has been provided for expansion and the county recently fought off attempts of the County Water Authority to run the second barrel of its aqueduct through the disposal site at a location which would interfere with the expansion.

To bring your poinsettias into bloom at Christmas time, begin shortening the daylight hours for your Poinsettias with a suitable canvas or cloth covering at about 5:15 p.m. (A friend of mine dyed some old bed sheets black and spread them over long stakes driven into the ground, thus creating a covering to prevent the daylight coming through.)

Five days later begin putting the covers on 15 minutes earlier or at 5 o'clock.

Five days later begin putting the covers on at 4:45.

Every five days continue to set the time earlier by 15 minutes until you find that you are putting the covers on at 3:45 p.m. Continue to cover the Poinsettias at 3:45 each day until the flower buds begin to form. This will be about the middle of November. And at this time, the days are so much shorter that you won't need to continue to cover them any longer. They will come into bloom for Christmas.

Government Seeks Applicants for Plush Foreign Jobs

A personnel representative of the International Cooperation Administration will be in San Diego October 14 through October 20 to interview applicants interested in topflight secretarial overseas jobs which pay between $4,000 and $5,000 a year, in addition to housing and other benefits.

The interview for applicants will be conducted in San Diego by Miss Frances Stokes. She may be contacted daily between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., at the California Department of Employment, 1730 Kettner Blvd., telephone Belmont 2-4292. Evening appointments available.

Those selected for these jobs will be assigned to such countries as Iran, Pakistan, Ceylon, Turkey, Cambodia, Korea, Ethiopia, and elsewhere in the Far East, Near East, Africa or Latin America. Vacancies also are available for work in the ICA Office in Washington, D.C.

Overseas assignments with ICA are open to qualified young women who can take shorthand and type at a good rate of speed. Other requirements are that the applicant must be single, have no dependents, be an American citizen, and possess excellent health and character Overseas appointments are for two years. In addition to salary and housing, the U. S. Government pays all the transportation costs. At the termination of a two-year tour of duty the secretary is entitled to six weeks home leave at government expense, if she accepts another tour of duty.

Hi Fi Influx Increases Sound Problem

A rise in popularity of high fidelity sound reproduction equipment is being sharply reflected in new home construction practices, according to Julian D. Cale, field service director of the Plastering and Lathing Institute of San Diego County

Both acoustics and sound insulation have attained far more importance in planning modern homes because of these advances in the audio field, Cale said. While both factors relate to the control of sound, they have different requirements, he added

Acoustical correction in wall and ceiling construction is made to aid the hearing of those within the room, so that sounds will not be distorted and will be audible throughout.

Sound insulation is the isolation of sounds to the room in which they originate. The increased volume of high fidelity equipment makes sound insulation particularly important, Cale said.

Rotarians, Scouts To Gather Clothing For Goodwill

Rotarians and Scouts throughout the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area joined Saturday in collecting clothing for Goodwill Industries.

Earlier, Scouts left "Goodwill Good Turn" bags to be filled with clothing and placed on front porches for last Saturday's pickup.

Also assisting with the collection was the San Diego Chapter of the California Trucking Association and the Teamsters Union. They provided the trucks and drivers for the collection.

Scouts collected the bags from the front porches and delivered them to designated truck pick-up points.

Clohting collected in the drive was delivered to Goodwill Industries of San Diego County.

It will be used to provide for the continuous employment of more than 200 physically handicapped workers, according to Dr. Myron Insko, executive director for Goodwill.

Former Helix Star Makes Bid for Spot On Harvard Team

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.— Franklin Bardacke, son of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Bardacke of 3747 Citrus St., Lemon Grove, is one of over 100 Harvard freshman football prospects working out at Soldiers Field this week.

Winner of all-League honorable mention during his senior year at Helix High School in 1958-59 Bardacke will battle for a backfield slot on a Crimson frosh unit trying to better the outstanding showing of the last two years' elevens. In 1958 the yearling contingent steamrollered all opposition but Princeton, which garnered a 10-0 upset.

The 6-foot, 168 -pound grid candidate plans to concentrate in the Humanities field.

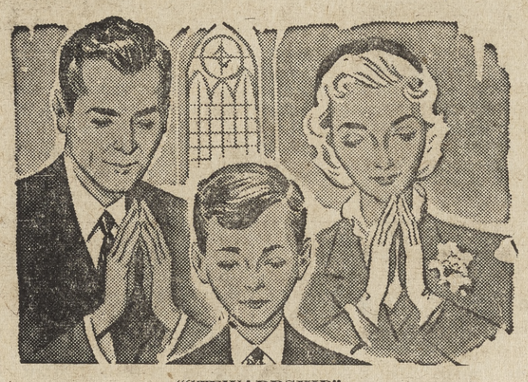
LET US ALL PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY



"STEWARDSHIP"

"All things come of Thee, O Lord, and of Thine own have we given Thee." Everything we possess comes from God and belongs to God; time, talents, treasure. The way in which we use these is the visible sign of our commitment to Christ. We are stewards (one entrusted with the management of that which belongs to someone else) of God's property and have an obligation to Him.

Once Over Lightly

by Don Wilson

In these, my declining years, I find it increasingly diificult to hear without my glasses.

As a defense, I reach for my glasses as I rise from bed in the morning and replace them on the night stand as I lie down at night. In between these hours, it is necessary to wear them at all times for fear that I might miss something.

Or insult someone.

There are times when I lean back in my chair and remove my glasses in order to rest my eyes. At such times, it is possible for someone to step up and start talking to me without my being able either to tell who they are or what they are saying.

I have discovered that in the years since I first started wearing glasses I have unconsciously become a lip reader. And when someone talks to me, I miss about half the conversation if I'm not wearing my glasses.

Television too. I can't tell if Steve Allen is talking or Audrey Meadows is singing if I'm not wearing my glasses.

There are other ramifications.

Occasionally, I will go down to the corner drugstore without my glasses and invariably some voice will shout at me from across the street. I look in that direction and see a vague form with what may be an arm waving from the top.

I always shout "Hi" and wave back.

But I always wonder who it was who waved at me, if it was someone, if they were waving at me. And I always wonder if I have gleefully waved acceptance of an offer to buy me a cup of coffee and then walked on leaving the offerer standing there.

Or maybe it was Ava Gardner or Barbara Rush waving at me, seeing in me a potential leading man for her next movie.

Or maybe a policeman warning me that jaywalking is illegal.

And I go back home to put my glasses on.

Actually, there isn't anything wrong with my hearing. It's just that I have grown accustomed to hearing conversations with my eyes. This is particularly useful when I'm trying to carry on a conversation across another conversation, or when I'm trying to listen in on something that I'm not supposed to listen in on.

I just stand far enough away so that nobody thinks I'm listening and then I read their lips.

It's a fascinating hobby, but it does lead to lazy ears.

—o—

It also ocurs to me as I progress in life that there has been a remarkable change in the Parent-Teacher Association since I was a youngster in school.

The mothers are much younger these days.

When I was in school, about 30 years ago, all the PTA mothers were about the same age as my mother.

Today, they're all younger than I am. I was present at a PTA meeting the day and not one of the mothers there was the age of my mother.

I think we should investigate this trend. It may be a movement on the part of some foreign system to infiltrate the tried and true, basic groups with a lot of young, irresponsible radicals.

Too much youth could be a dangerous thing.

"The Square Peg in the Round Hole"

WELCOME TIME — Emil Rosati delivers the day's mail to Mrs. Harry Brand, manager of Hilltop Chateau retirement home. National Letter Writing Week, Rosati said, imposes a few minor hardships on the mail carriers but offers satisfying results when the mailmen see the delight that a handful of letters brings. Francis R. Faucher, Lemon Grove postmaster, said: "Write a letter to someone this week. To an elderly relative, a letter is almost like a visit with the folks."

call more clearly than the men, women and youngsters who produce and distribute newspapers.

Each year the best brains of the newspaper industry churn about for a new theme and slogan. This year the theme is "Your Newspaper—Freedom's Textbook." That's a pretty good slogan!

National Newspaper Week, incidentally, was founded by John B. Long, the revered general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association, who is a particular friend of ours as he is of virtually everyone else active in this far-flung business.

There has been a truism threading through the years we have participated in observing National Newspaper Week — that an informed people needs a free press. Toward this end hundreds of daily and weekly hometown newspapers bend their efforts day by day and week by week.

However there are those who would control our Democracy. At each attempt to attach such a muzzle, no matter how slight it is, the editors of their respective newspapers collectively shudder for they know better than any others that a slight control may hide the ingredients of a melange that could smother the desirable but fragile force of freedom.

Wherever and whenever such an encroachment is attempted, John Long can be counted on to be found leading the fray for the free press and free people. To his credit is the statement often made by friends and foes alike: "John Long is a damn good fighter."

We would like to share our portion of this year's observation of National Newspaper Week with a tribute to John Long because he convinced me long ago that newspapers are our only defense against an undemocratic government.

Chamber Man Traces Progress of Region

"When you pay taxes," La Mesa's chamber of commerce manager told the Lemon Grove Men's Club Friday, "you control a portion of the face of the earth."

Ray Sherer, the speaker, said that the idea he expressed was "not entirely original, but seems like a pretty accurate thought."

Sherer was outlining his ideas as to the prospects for this area in the future, an area which includes Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and La Mesa.

He pointed to the number of telephones in the Hopkins exchange and said that in 20 years the number has increased from 1,205 phones to 35,000 phones.

"This," he said, "is more significant than a study of population increase alone. This indicates an increase in the volume of business—and in the ability of the community to support, financially, such an increase."

He pointed to a $200,000,000 volume of taxable retail sales as an indication of the tenor of the community. "We must plan and work toward maintaining this type of community," he said, remarking that this area has a per capita income equally to that of Santa Barbara, normally considered an above-average community.

Sherer said that three "tremendous" movements are underway in this general area:

1) Education—With two new junior colleges contemplated, establishment of the University of California at La Jolla and expansion of San Diego State College and University of San Diego.

2) Industry—With many industries looking toward Southern California for the establishing of plants.

3) Recreation—With 18 golf courses in the San Diego metropolitan area; lakes, rivers and the ocean; a projected playland in the Flinn Springs area; and the "big business" of handling tourists.

Don Wilson, news editor of this newspaper and a former Navy pilot, will be the speaker for the Men's Club this Friday. He will discuss "the terrifying sport of free ballooning."

Form Junior College, Schools Group Urges

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Formation of a junior college district to be made up of Grossmont Union High School District and the Mountain Empire Unified School District was recommended last Wednesday night at a meeting of the San Diego County Committee on School District Organization.

The action was taken after the report of a sub-committee that made a recommendation that the county be divided into five junior college districts.

The trustees of the Grossmont and Mountain Empire districts are to meet to decide if the latter wish their district to become part of a junior college district

—o—

BULLETIN

The Grossmont Union High School District Board of trustees has invited Mountain Empire Unified School trustees to a joint meeting on October 26 to discuss a proposed junior college district for the two districts.

with Grossmont. Grossmont should seek to form its own district if Mountain Empire trustees don't wish to participate, the report indicated.

If the two districts agree on formation of a junior college district, it will mean the election of a new board of trustees. However, should Grossmont proceed alone, the junior college boundaries would be the same as those of the high school district, and the present Grossmont board could be the junior college board.

Several steps in the past have been taken toward forming a junior college district within the Grosmont high school district, but the move has never reached the stage where it could be presented to voters for approval.

The county group studying the formation of junior college districts reported Wednesday night that the existing Grossmont district has a potential junior college enrollment of 2,090 students. It was predicted that this would rise to 3,650 in the next five years.

Assessed valuations are expected to show the sharpest gains for any school districte in the county. They were put at $175,500,210 for the present, with the 1964-65 figure to be $384,800,000.

The junior college enrollment potential for the Mountain Empire Unified School District was reported by the sub-committee at only 40, with the prospects for five years from now 45.

George T. Capatanos, superintendent of the Mountain Empire district, indicated that his trustees would favor joining with Grossmont. The present tax rate levied to permit students from his area to go to San Diego Junior College was more than property owners could easily bear, Capatanos declared.

Should the two districts join, to form a joint Grossmont-Mountain Empire junior college district, the tax burden would be spread on the basis of assessed valuation. Mountain Empire's assessed valuation is now $6,986,200, the report submitted by the county group stated. Its 1964-65 total is expected to be only $9,300,000.

After the trustees of the Grossmont and Mountain Empire districts meet to discuss joint action on a junior college district, another meeting before the County Committee on School District Organization will be required. That group has set its next meeting for early November, but it can call a special meeting to act on any request for haste in formation of the junior college district.

WHAT'S DOING

Dick Rose, your Telephone Manager in La Mesa

This is a "switchboard on wheels"— a complete telephone central office built right into a big truck trailer. Its job is to help phone people keep vital calls going through during emergencies. You see, we can send these switchboards on wheels wherever they're needed and hook them up to hundreds of phone lines in a matter of hours. Then operators work right from these trailers, keeping important calls going—fire, police, hospital, civil defense, and such. It's one way we work to keep phone service ready when it's needed most.

Here are just four of the many Pacific Telephone employees who have voluntarily given of their time to help the United Fund campaign.

School District Offers Wall After Mud Flood

A hollow brick retaining wall may be provided by the Lemon Grove School District to ease contention which arose when rain water flooded from the new site of the Mt. Vernon School onto the property of George E. Snell, 8248 Mt. Vernon, next door.

The Snell family had complained this summer concerning the ten-foot high earth bank resulting from grading operations at the new school, but mud hit the fan earlier this month when Lemon Grove enjoyed its first rain of the season and water from the graded area flooded the Snell property.

A drain had been installed but was plugged by the contractor to avert the hazard of children crawling into it. Men on the job at the time of the rainstorm failed to remove the plug and the water deposited a layer of mud on the Snell property.

The Lemon Grove School board authorized school superintendent Byron Netzley to propose to the Snell family a three-foot wall to be built at district expense as a condition of settling the issue both personally and legally. Cost of the work was estimated by School Business Manager Paul Reynolds at $2,000.

School Board President Bert Cosby said he thought the obligation was partially a moral one. As a legal obligation the insurance carrier of the contractor would be responsible, Netzley pointed out.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CHANGE OF ZONE CLASSIFICATION

A public hearing will be held by the San Diego County Planning Commission in Room 310, San Diego City and County Administration Building, Civic Center, San Diego, California, on Friday, October 30, 1959, at 11:00 a.m., on an application for the reclassification of certain lots and portions of certain lots in La Mesa County Club Tract 4, Map 1792 (more particularly described in records on file in the office of the County Planning Department, Room 044 Civic Center, San Diego California), and adjacent areas, located on La Mar Street, Crest Drive and Upland Street, La Mesa Country Club Section, from E-1 Estates Zone, to E-1-A, Half Acre Estates Zone; being the request of Walter A. Adsit, and others; and in accordance with Ordinance No. 1402 (New Series), as amended, San Diego County, California.

Square Dance News . . .

The Alpine Allenmanders will host a gigantic public square dance from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday night, October 24, on the parking lot of the Don Diego Market in Lemon Grove.

Slim McInroe, well-known square dance enthusiast, will be master of ceremonies, with Jack and June Smith of the Alpine Allenmanders as callers.

Y'all come.

The Merry Whirlers Advance Square Dance Class started Friday October 8, 9 to 10 p.m. Ron East is instructing every second and fourth Friday night. Everyone is welcome. Call JU 2-5171 for information.

"Close Quarters." The home of Ray and Juanita Close, was the scene of a birthday celebration recently when the R'ythm Round'rs held a surprise party for Roy-forever-39 Close. After a delicious "ham and you bring the fixin's" dinner, the group presented Roy with an artistic redwood lamp, post and sign which will now light the way to "Close Quarters". The rest of the evening was devoted to all of the favorite rounds, of course. As the program was impromptu, many requests had Roy hunting for old records like 1898, Honey, High Rockin' Swing and Glowworm. Pres. Fred and Harriet Baumgarten; Past Pres. Noble and Jean Learn, and Past Pres. Ed and Beth Laney were in charge of the arrangements for the party.

The Country Cousins extend a warm invitation to all dancers to join them on October 24 for a Halloween dance. There will be door prizes and refreshments will be served. Workshop night is the first Saturday of each month which includes instructions of the round of the month as well as the latest square dance numbers. Party Night is the fourth Saturday. Ray Columbe is our caller.

Levis and Laces

At a recent Party Dance, a sad note was injected when Clarence Montgomery made the announcement that the "H & H Tunetwisters" were disbanding after six years of playing for many benefits, without charge, for the Swimming Pool Carnivals and Polio dances. We know that all the Heartland area dancers and callers join us in thanking them for their wonderful music We will miss hearing them play, but will be happy to see them in squares as they plan on doing a lot of dancing now.

We are now sponsoring an intermediate and brush-up class on Monday nights at 8 p.m. and everyone that might be interested is welcome to join this class.

Monday, October 12 will be Party Nnight for the intermediate class and refreshments will be severd following the dance. We hope to see you at the Lemon Grove Women's Club and know you will enjoy yourself.

—o—

The Promenaders Square Dance Club, meeting in the S.V Chamber of Commerce hall, had an all-request night Sept. 30. Many old dances were called and enjoyed. Club caller was Frank Dyson, and he was assisted by guest caller Al Rider. Hosts and hostesses were Charles and Margerite Pylant and Fred and Joy Myers. Special guests were the "Heartland Couple of the oMnth" Ray Benoit and Sharon Wisdom.

DRIVE WITH CARE . . . EVERYWHERE! — IT'S A FULL-TIME JOB.

The Vista La Mesa Safety Patrol is serving its eleventh year with a perfect pupil safety record. Several factors contribute to this outstanding record, by far the most important being the excellent cooperation of the motoring public. The willing obedience to traffic control by twelve-year-old youngsters is a tribute to responsible highway driving.

The California Highway Patrol, too, looms large in the success of this program. The officers selected to supervise the program at Vista La Mesa have won the admiration and respect of every participating pupil. They have been patient and thorough in their instructions, and effective in promoting awareness that public service reflects the highest type of youth, as well as adult, citizenship.

Though all boys participating are sixth graders, selection is made and training begun toward the end of the fifth grade. Fifth grade teachers recommend responsible and resourceful boys from their classes and from these the principal make final selection and placement for the coming year.

Responsibility for the safety of young children is a heavy one to be shouldered by twelve-year-olds, but the sober acceptance of such a responsibility by these youngsters affords one of the many real pleasures enjoyed by those who work with children.

Home Tutoring Plan For Handicapped Children is OK'd

A home tutoring program for handicapped children is under way by the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, it was learned recently. A report to the board of trustees of the District has indicated that careful calculations regarding the program are being made. This has come as a result of some urging on the part of the State Department of Education that the program be handled on the basis of five daily contacts per week for each child.

The District has done a careful financial analysis, it was reported, and it is believed that because of the increase of money which will be received from the state as a result of the added ADA (average daily attendance) which will accrue to the District, that the five visits per week program can be handled at approximately the same cost of the two visits per week program of last year.

In order to move ahead on this problem, it was requested that authorization be granted for a home tutoring program which will involve five visits per week.

Number 13 stop was at the new Avondale Elementary School, in Spring Valley Estates. It is expected to be ready by Christmas of this year, at a cost of $324,200.

On the way back to the District headquarters the bus driver took the group by the Spring Valley Elementary School. There three portables are being constructed at a cost of $31,665.

Other schools and sites in the district, which the group did not visit are: Rolando Elementary School; Fletcher Hills Elementary School; Northmont Elementary School; Lemon Avenue Elementary School, where two special rooms are being constructed for retared children at a cost of $44,397; La Mesa Elementary; La Mesa Dale Elementary; La Mesa Junior High; Casa de Oro Elementary; Bancroft Elementary; and the site of the proposed Garden Valley Elementary School, near Helix St. and Olive Dr., Spring Valley. This site covers 16 acres and construction is expected within the next five years.

Clifford Pennick Heads Firemen's Relief Association

Clifford Pennick of 8689 Lamar, Spring Valley, a volunteer fireman on the Spring Valley fire department, has been elected president of the S.V. Firemen's Relief Association. Other officers elected were: Stan Mourning (regular fireman), vice president; Ronnie Lucas (regular fireman), secretary; and Herb Preston (captain of the volunteers), treasurer.

The association voted to contribute $150 to add to the $300 set aside by Women's Fire Auxiliary for the purchase of small items for the two fire stations.

☆ Small children should never be left alone in the house, fire statistics reveal. Almost 30 per cent of all child deaths in home fires involve unattended children.
